TOO OLD TO LEARN.

I am sumthin' of a vet'ran, just a turnin' eighty year.
A man that's hale and hearty and a stranger
tew all fear;
But I've heard some news this mornin' that has
made me old head spin,
And I'm goin' to ease my consuns if I never speak ag'in.
I've lived my four score years of life, and never till to-day
Was I taken for a jackass or an ign'rant kind
of jay.
Tew beatused with such durned nonsense 'bout
them crawlin' bugs and worms
That's a h'lin' human bein's with their microscopic germs.
They say there's "microbes" all around hunt-
in' for their prey;
There's nothin' pure tew eat or drink or no safe
place to stay.
There's "miasm" in the dewfall and "malar"
in the sun;
Tis "safe" to be outdoors at noon or when the day is done.
There's "bacteria" in the water and "trichee-
ry" in the meat,
"Ameeby" in the atmosphere, "calory" in the heat;
There's "porcupusels and pigments" in a human
bein's blood,
And every other kind of thing existin' sense the flood.
Terbacker's fall of "tickertoon," whatever that may be,
And your throat will all get puckered up with
"Ameeby" in the tea;
The butter's "olly-margareen," it never saw a cow.
And things is gettin' wus and wus from what they be just now.
Them bugs is all about us, jest a waitin' for a like plant.
Tew navigate our vitals and tew 'naw us off
like plants.
There's men that spends a lifetime huntin'
for the "bacteria" in the air;
And tackin' Latin names to 'em and lettin' on
'em loose.
Now, I don't believe sech nonsense, and don't intend to try;
If things has come tew such a pass I'm satisfied
to die.
I'll go hang me in the aulder, for I won't be sech
a fool
As tew wait until I'm pizen by a anny'mal.

STRANGE AND GHASTLY.

Gruesome Talk of a San Francisco Undertaker.

Why He Found Pleasure in His Business

A Young Lady Who Fell in Love

with a Dead Man and Then

Lost Her Mind.

One of the oldest undertakers in San Francisco, formerly a member of the firm of

Cowan, Potter & Co., recently told an Examiner reporter that he would not exchange occupations with any man in the State. Said he:

"I tell you there is a singular fascination in ministering to the wants of the dead, in placing over them garlands of flowers, nicely arranging their white faces, and laying their pale bodies in the last casket."

The old veteran went on portraying the pleasures of his pursuit, and as he gave the details of his weird avocation he grew into an ecstasy not unlike the reveries of an opium-eater. Continuing, the undertaker said:

"Experience has taught me that familiarity with the dead takes the sting from the grave. My business puts death in a less terrifying light than the pictures which the imagination draws where the actual is seemingly witnessed. I have put so many in their last homes that I no longer look upon death with the old fear. I agree with the man who said: 'Tired of the heat and glamor of the day we hear with joy the rustling garments of the night.' I look upon every new face that comes into my quiet sleeping apartments over there as one more lucky traveler who has reached at last his journey's end."

"Do you ever have favorites among those whom you did not know during life?"

"Well, sir, I like modest people with frank countenances, whether in life or death.

Some corpses have mean countenances. I would have declined an introduction in life,

and so I do not cultivate their society in death. Some seem to stare at me, while others look like sneaks. A dead man's face is a good photograph of what he was in life, and it has the advantage that no trick of an assumed expression can deceive the eye of the observer.

"There are lovely men and women who come here, and when they leave us we miss them and we feel lonely. It gives me great pleasure to pin a little bouquet upon their garments, or to adjust their heads upon their pillows. They often need these little attentions, and they seem pleased when they are kind to them. Of course they never speak, but there is golden eloquence in their silence. Different positions in their quiet faces give a language to them, and a slight change in attitude makes the contour and whole effect different.

"Let me tell you about a young woman who used to assist me where I formerly lived. She made handsome bouquets and occasionally turned her leisure, and she also kept the entry books.

"Well, sir, that girl has much good philosophy on the subject of death. She liked to read about the old Greeks who dressed their dead in white, sang odes to immortal and placed floral decorations on their tombs.

"I often noticed that she spent many idle hours among the coffins after the bodies were prepared and properly clothed. I, of course, thought that she was simply studying the business and trying to learn how to make what we call artistic settings, for she

Rheumatism and Neuralgia

These twin diseases cause untold suffering.

Doctors admit that they are difficult to cure—

so do their patients.

Paine's Celery Compound has permanently cured

the worst cases of rheumatism and neuralgia—say those who have used it.

Having been troubled with rheumatism at the knee and foot for five years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time.

I used only one bottle of

Paine's Celery Compound,

and was perfectly cured.

I can now jump around,

and feel as lively as a boy." FRANK CARROLL,

Eureka, Nevada.

"Paine's Celery Compound has been a Godsend to me. For the past two years I have suffered with neuralgia of the heart doctor

after doctor failing to cure me. I have now taken nearly four bottles of the compound, and am free from the complaint. I feel very grateful to you." CHAS. H. LEWIS, Central Village, Ct.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

An Editorial Sermon.

Last evening's Carson Tribune contained the following, which was doubtless suggested by the recent sudden death of Lieutenant-Governor H. C. Davis:

"There is much difference of opinion, especially among religionists, concerning the instantaneous removal of the spirit essence from the frail mortal tenement, some claiming that if a person has not experienced religion, or what is termed saving grace, the sudden shaking off of the mortal coil is the means of losing the necessary cleansing of the soul from sin, and hence admission to the heavenly realms is impossible; but we find nothing in the scriptures that warrants the assertion, and if, as was stated by Christ, 'not a sparrow falls to the ground without the knowledge of God,' surely the Great Creator and Ruler, who holds the life and death of poor humanity in his hands, knows whether it is best for mortals to die or live, and if, as is stated in the Good Book, pardon was extended to the thief during his last crucifixion agonies, surely the unexpressed prayer, the instantaneous thought or desire of a poor, erring mortal whose life's thread is suddenly severed should receive attention from the Great First Cause, the author of our being. This is a happy belief for those who realize the fact that there is a future state of existence—a happy home beyond the skies, where life's troubles and cares are forgotten, and the good, kind, generous heart secures the reward of good deeds done on earth, and where, with kindred spirits, an eternity of happiness follows. If this is all of life—if no future state of existence follows—and sickness, incurable sickness, overtakes one, then indeed is sudden death a mercy, and even though it may cause surviving relatives and loving friends much deep sorrow, it should be looked on with resignation and consider all for the best. Better pass away in a moment than linger in torture for years."

The San Francisco Chronicle of Friday makes a "scoop" on its contemporaries and publishes an exhaustive sixteen-page edition on the subject of irrigation. The paper is a general history of the subject, and is worthy of preservation.

The "political weapon" at Virginia City first apologizes for getting caught in its own trap, and then completely flies the track. The people will lose confidence (if they ever had any) in your sincerity, Mr. c., by many such breaks.

The Colusa Daily Gazette is a new morning paper published at Colusa by Eugene L. Fuller, formerly of the Willows Gazette. The new paper is Republican in politics.

SMOKE DIPPER.

How Tobacco is Used by Some Southern Women.

A popular vice among the ladies of this part of the State is the use of tobacco, writes an Ozark (Ark.) correspondent of the Omaha Bee. Some will chew like veterans, while others are content to smoke. But far the most common way of deriving enjoyment by its use is by taking it in the form of snuff. When a number of women get together the snuff-box is nearly always produced, with the instruction to "take a dip" as it goes around the circle. Then they will sit and gossip, interrupting the flow of conversation with frequent expirations into a big spittoon or the fireplace. A snuff-dipper's outfit consists of a small tin canister about an inch thick to two inches long, and a wooden brush. The latter is about three inches in length and in size resembles a slate pencil. It is usually cut from black gum or some other tough wood. One end is chewed and splintered by the teeth, till it looks like a small paint brush. The splintered end is dipped into the snuff and worked around till a little ball has been collected. The snuff thus secured is rubbed over the teeth and gums. Usually the stick is held between the teeth until the snuff has all been absorbed, then another dip is taken. For ladies who object to using a canister and brush a small snuff-wafer has been invented, which can be concealed between the lips and teeth. A grocer's clerk asserted emphatically that fully ninety per cent of the women used either tobacco or snuff, or both. By thinking men the tobacco habit among women is considered one of the worst evils with which Arkansas is obliged to contend.

A FIVE-ROUND KNOCK-OUT

Twenty-Hundred Sealskins Arrive at Victoria.

THE CHARLESTON

Makes a Run of Four Hours at the Rate of 18 1/2 Knots.

Special to the GAZETTE.
LOS ANGELES, August 24.—The new cruiser Charleston arrived off San Pedro at 9 o'clock this morning, having made the official trial run of four hours from Port Hartford to Santa Barbara yesterday afternoon. The trial was successful in every way. The cruiser made 18 1/2 knots per hour during the whole run and developed 6,700 horse power. Commodore Benham has prepared a dispatch to send to the Navy Department, stating that she was satisfactory, and that the boilers, engines and machinery worked admirably. The Charleston had come here for fuel and will leave to-day for San Francisco.

Twenty-Five Hundred Sealskins.

Special to the GAZETTE.
VICTORIA, B. C., August 24.—The schooner Sapphi, Captain Cox, arrived from Behring's Sea yesterday, having twenty-five hundred sealskins on board. The Sapphi was sighted by the United States cruiser Bear on July 30th and chased out of Behring Sea, a fair wind and mist enabling her to escape seizure. She reports that the Rush, after a capture of the schooner Minnie, towed her to Ounalska and the schooner Penelope was afterwards seen in Rush's wake on her way to Ounalska.

A Union Pacific Pointer.

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, August 24.—H. M. Yerington, President of the Carson & Colorado railroad, stated that the company had decided to abandon the building of the road from Keeler to Mojave, but would build fifty miles due south from Keeler to a point surveyed by the Union Pacific. Mr. Yerington said this action was decided upon after a conversation with President Adams of the Union Pacific. He refused, however, to state that President Adams had given assurances that the Union Pacific would build into California.

No Word from Minister Lincoln.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, August 24.—The Acting Secretary of State to day said that no communications from Minister Lincoln upon the subject of the Behring Sea troubles had been received at the Department. He had heard nothing beyond what he had seen in the newspapers from the British Government of an intention on its part to request arbitration, and in fact the Department has had no communication from the British Government upon the subject since Secretary Bayard quitted the office.

A Continuance.

Special to the GAZETTE.
STOCKTON, August 24.—The District Attorney went into the justice's court this morning and moved for a continuance in Nagle's case until Thursday next, and it was so ordered. The charge against Field was not dismissed and was not referred to in the proceedings in Nagle's case.

An Unknown Man Jumps Overboard.

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—An unknown man jumped from the deck of the Oakland ferry-boat this afternoon while crossing the bay and was drowned. The steamer was stopped and boats lowered, but the body could not be found.

Montana's Republican State Ticket.

By Associated Press.
ANACONDA, Mont., Aug. 23.—The Republican State ticket was completed to-day. For Congress the nominee is T. H. Carter of Helena; Governor, T. O. Power of Helena; Lieutenant-Governor, E. J. Richards of Butte.

A $300 Knockout.

By Associated Press.
LAWRENCE, Mass., August 24.—George Bush of California and Henry M. Watson of Bitterace, Mass., fought to a finish early this morning, just over the New Hampshire line. Bush had his own way from the start and knocked out Watson in the fifth round. The fight was for $300.

Chinese Act of September.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The Treasury Department has informed a Boston correspondent that the Chinese Act of September 13, 1881, does not take effect until the date of the exchange of ratifications, which date has not yet arrived.

Narrow Escape.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, August 24.—The Pacific Mail steamship, City of Para, with twenty-nine cabin passengers, arrived at Sandy Hook this morning from Aspinwall. The beams of her forward hatch were burned and scorched, and has the outward marks of a big fire which came very near, destroying the vessel and its precious cargo. The City of Para left New York with a full part of this month with a first cargo of merchandise. She reached Aspinwall in due season, and the longshoremen and sailors had discharged a total of fifty tons of cargo from the hold when the fire was discovered among the cotton and naval stores which were stowed away in the forward compartment. This was on the evening of August 11th, two days after the vessels' arrival. The fire had complete control of the forehold when it was discovered, and before the alarm could be sounded great sheets of flames and volumes of blinding smoke filled the air over the forward part of the craft. The flames attracted the attention of the ancient fire department of Aspinwall, which turned out, and, with a number of American laborers from the dock, set to work to assist the people of the steamship in extinguishing the flames. All through the night of the eleventh men toiled, and several fell exhausted, as morning came on, from overwork. The 12th opened with the fire still burning fiercely, and towards noon of that day it looked as if the steamer was doomed. During the afternoon of the 12th the flames were shown as suddenly as they began, a "fat" 4 o'clock Captain Lockwood and skipper of the ship reported the fire extinguished. A large quantity of the cargo was destroyed and the interior of the vessel is badly damaged.

Canadian Competition.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, August 24.—President Van Horn of the Canadian Pacific Railway in and elaborate interview published here to-day, regarding the movement to restrict competition of Canadian roads in the United States, says:

"In this case Judge Cooley has apparently formed his opinion without giving defendant opportunity to be heard. The Canadian Pacific is not and never has been an eager competitor for freight traffic between the Eastern and Pacific Coast States. It has arbitrary rates to its connections at both of its lines on such traffic, and those arbitrary rates leave too little profit to make the traffic worth fighting for. The Transcontinental Association was formed in January, 1888, and the Canadian Pacific joined it at the beginning. Up to the end of January last, the first full year of the association, out of a total of 750,000 tons of freight within the jurisdiction of the association, the Canadian Pacific carried less than 12,000 tons, or one-fifty-fifth of the whole, and this included its own British Columbia freight. Since January it has carried a somewhat larger proportion, possibly three or four per cent., but this is so far less than it is entitled to as one of the four or five competing lines. There is little if any sincerity in the complaints of the other Pacific lines about the effect of the others of neglecting. The Canadian Pacific was used by them as a bugbear in the attempt to prevent the passage of the Interstate Commerce Act, and its use as a bugbear being continued for the purpose of obtaining modifications of the Act."

From Port-au-Prince.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, August 24.—Dispatches from Port-au-Prince dated to-day at Mole, St. Nicholas, say Legitime, the rival of Hyppolite for the Presidency of Hayti, has abdicated. Legitime embarked on a French gunboat on August 23d, and Hyppolite, who had entered Legitime's late stronghold at Port-au-Prince two days later. A temporary government has been formed. The American ship, Kearsarge has moved near the city and Admiral Gherarch is master.

Assayer Appointed.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, August 24.—Abell Whitehead, of Idaho, has been appointed Assayer of the Mint bureau, a place made vacant by the removal of Dr. Torbell last Spring.

Sleep-Walking Prospects.

According to the Index, Hovey district has a somnambulist minor who nightly at midnight leaves his abode and returns a few hours later with a sack of ore worth $10 per pound. The somnambulist has been watched, but he is so agile in climbing steep mountain sides that no one so far has been able to track him to the spot where he gets the rich ore. He has accumulated above $4,000 in gold mortgaged out of the ore secured in his somnambulist rambles.

Wisconsin Pearls.

Pearls have been found at Albany, Green county, Wisconsin, on the Sugar river. They are found in clam shells, between the membrane and shell, and are of all sizes, from a pin's head to a large-sized pea, and of all shades. Some have been sold for as high as $75, and $100 has been refused for others. A shipment estimated to be worth $1,500 was made to Chicago August 5th.

Large Racer Snake Story.

The story comes from Leigh, Miss., that John Davis while hunting the other day, shot and killed a snake of the moccasint variety that measured 18 feet 5 inches in length and 2 1/2 inches in circumference. It was such a monster that Mr. Davis concluded to skin and stuff it. While performing the operation he found a Mexican gold coin secreted among its vitals that was used in 1624.

AN ASTONISHING CHANGE.

"My dear madam, I never saw you looking so well, and you were so poorly, too."

"Yes, doctor, Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the greatest thing in the world for run-down, nervous and debilitated women. That's the secret of my appearance."

Up to a month ago Mrs. Beiden, an elderly lady, living at 510 Mason street, San Francisco, was failing in health and flesh so rapidly as to seriously alarm her relatives. She now writes: "I have taken but one bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, but it is astonishing. I am regaining my lost flesh and have not felt as well in years."

NOTICES.

The Riverside Hotel is the place to go for the finest Sunday dinner you ever ate in the town.

This morning E. C. Leadbetter had some of the finest green corn of the season. All his vegetables are good.

In addition to a full stock of the best family groceries, J. N. Wallace keeps all kinds of green fruit and vegetables. Lessons given in all kinds of fancy needle work at Miss Emma Gibbs. Examine her stock of hats; latest styles.

For a good shave or artistic hair-cut, go to Theo. Gebhardt's. Hot, cold or shower baths, west side Virginia street.

For your note, letter, legal-cap or foolscap paper, or tablets of all sizes for either pen or pencil, go to C. A. Thurston's news depot.

If you want to enjoy a rare treat, go to J. J. Becker's Chicago Saloon tomorrow for your noon lunch and a schooner of Boca or Sacramento beer.

By going this evening to John Belz's barber shop for your weekly shave and bath, it will give you a chance for a good long sleep to-morrow morning.

Before the commencement of next term of school, you will find that your children are supplied with the kind of books for sale by C. J. Brookins.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Fig-a few years ago has been more confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers—the Cal. Fig Syrup Company.

A GENEROUS MAN.

Matt. McCabe, of New Brunswick, Ill., offers to pay five dollars to any person troubled with bloody flux, who will take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions and does not get well in the shortest possible time. One-half of a 25-cent bottle of this remedy cured him of bloody flux, after he had tried other medicines and the prescriptions of physicians without benefit. Mr. McCabe is perfectly safe in making this offer, as more than a thousand bottles of this remedy are sold each day and it has never been known to fail in any case of colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea or bloody flux, when the plain printed directions were followed. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

A Short Crop.

The hop crop of Oregon and Washington will be only about two thirds, but of good quality. Most of the picking will be done by whites and Indians; but few Chinese will be employed.

Enough.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee the Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion, and cure Dyspepsia, and install indigestion. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle by S. J. Hodgkinson, druggist.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time, she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought an other and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For further particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, druggist, Dr. Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at S. J. Hodgkinson's.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sore, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Hodgkinson & Co., druggists.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the only remedy that can always be depended upon for bowel complaint in all its forms; 25 and 50-cent bottles for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

FOURTH AND LAST TRIP.

A Well-Known Man of Salem, Or., Perishes in Nevada.

Not long since the GAZETTE published the death of a man by the name of Long, who perished for want of water while on his way from the vicinity of Rabbit Hole Springs to Granite Creek Station. To-day the GAZETTE received the following letter of inquiry:

SALEM, Or., August 20, 1889.
 EDITOR GAZETTE: I enclose a clipping which will explain itself. The man referred to is none other than my grandfather, David Long, recently of Roeburg. Will you please inform me of the exact place the body was buried and what was done with the few effects found on his body? Any information regarding the same will be thankfully received.

The ring was my sister's (now dead) and must be recovered if possible. Yours truly, C. M. Lockwood, 226 Trade St., Salem, Or.
 Accompanying the letter was the following from the Portland Oregonian: "The man referred to is none other than David Long, father-in-law of C. M. Lockwood, formerly a Government contractor in Eastern Oregon; grandfather of Coanney M. Lockwood, now of this city, and uncle by marriage of J. W. Hodgeson, also of this city. Mr. Long resided in Salem some twenty years and was well known to all the old settlers. He moved to Roeburg about four years ago and was supported in his old age by his relatives. About the 1st of June Mr. Hodgeson sent him $40, and in a short time afterward heard he had purchased a ticket for Nevada and gone to hunt for a gold mine which he claimed to have discovered while crossing the plains in 1859. This was the fourth trip he made in search of that mine since coming to Oregon, and whether it was genuine or imaginary, his perseverance in seeking it proved the old gentleman's nemesis."

The ring spoken of above belonged to Lucy H. Lockwood, Chauncey's sister. Mr. Hodgeson has written to Nevada to ascertain minute particulars of his death, burial and the effects found upon his person. Mr. Long was a little eccentric always, but he is kindly remembered by many in Salem, who feel sorry for the sad and miserable manner in which he met his death."

SIERRA VALLEY.

Seven Hundred Thousand Acres of Land Seeking Water.

This valley is a very small portion of California, but we feel it our duty, says the Leader, to urge that its interest be not forgotten by the arid land reclamation committee now visiting the coast. Senator Stewart of Nevada is Chairman of the committee and our people should certainly organize and take proper measures to bring the 700,000 acres of sage brush land in this valley properly before this committee. The water can be had and scarcely be missed from the great storage system now contemplated on the Little Truckee, Webber Lake and above this lake. The people in the lower portion of this valley should organize at once and see what can be done. If they get three or four thousand inches turned into the ditch from the Little Truckee, they can convey it down our creeks and take out all they have turned in, and this hogging of the water can be severely punished if the proper legal steps are taken in time. Now is the golden time for our people to bestir themselves, while the committee is here. Water will turn all the sagebrush lands of this valley into rich alfalfa or other grass fields.

An Important Ore Strike.

George A. Fittmer has returned from a visit to Red Canyon mining district, Douglas county, says the Virginia Chronicle, where he went to inspect a recent development in the Red Cloud location, which he has been engaged in prospecting for several years and has been finally rewarded by the development of a vein of ore three feet in width, which shows an average assay value across the face of $100 per ton. The vein was cut at a depth of 60 feet below the surface by driving an adit tunnel 140 feet in length. There is a five-stamp mill, operated by steam, about one and a half miles from the mine, where the ore extracted will be crushed.

"Please Keep It Out of the Paper"

Apparently the lively town of Nevada is not the only place where requests not to publish the news—news to all but a few—are made, as the following from the Green Valley Bulletin implies: "In obedience to the expressed wish of both sides to the affair of last week which attracted no little attention in town, we refrain from placing the matter in public print at the present time." And yet Brother Hall no doubt uses that threadbare phrase, "If you don't take the Bulletin, you don't get the news."

The New Buildings.

The iron front of Hon. William Thompson's new brick block is in place and the brick work of the second story will be prosecuted to completion. The brick work of the first story of the addition to the First National Bank is also finished. Pothoff's new two-story brick stable is rapidly approaching completion, and a large force is at work on Charley Frick's and Cooper's new buildings. The walls of John Sunderland's shoe shop are about completed and the roof will soon be put on.

Likes the Carson Track.

The Carson Tribune says: "The Winters, the far-famed racehorse man, sends word to the Tribune that if proper accommodations are offered he will bring a number of racehorses to Carson and winter them in the track stables. Mr. Winters is much pleased with the new race track, having always expressed the opinion that it is the best race ground on the Pacific coast. Doubtless the Directors will communicate with Mr. Winters on this very important subject."

The Law Enforced.

The proprietress of the "Shirt Factory" was arrested yesterday for violating the four hundred yard law and entered a plea of guilty before Judge Young today. The establishment is and will remain closed.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

How about the military post? School commences next Monday. Read the stray notice in the 50-cent ad.

Reno's town ordinances are being revised. The pine nut crop this year is a failure. Reno watermelons this season are large, sweet and tender.

Bartlett pear trees are breaking from their heavy load of fruit. The funeral of Alfred Wilson was largely attended yesterday.

The funeral of the infant son of Charles Roche took place to-day. The east-bound second-class train arrives at 7:35 and leaves at 7:55 a. m.

Several new residences have been commenced on Powning's addition. Mr. Pinniger has some Minneapolis Building Association stock for sale—see 50-cent column.

The Carson Tribune says the Miners Union purpose charging a dollar admission to their picnic.

The Genoa Courier says parties from Oakland took up 4,500 acres of Carson Valley land last week.

Although the bustle has of late been shrinking much in fashion's eyes, it still continues to prevail in dry goods stores that advertise.

The Robinson Bros. of Long Valley arrived last evening with 40 head of beef cattle, which they sold to William Callahan.

Several large bands of beef cattle have been driven through Susanville lately on their way to the lower country market.

Stationery printed (?) with a rubric stamp costs more than when printed at a legitimate office by a legitimate printer. Try it and see.

Water storage talk has created a boom in Carson Valley sagebrush lands. Everybody seems to have business at the Land Office.

Another house is being built in Powning's addition. The foundation has already been laid. Mr. Mitchell, the carpenter, is the builder.

Last Thursday the flags of the Masonic Hall and Court House at Winnemucca were placed at half mast in memory of the late H. C. Davis.

Forty-one dead bodies from a cattle train were skinned and thrown out on the San Bernardino (Cal.) depot platform for the authorities there to bury.

The remains of Lieutenant-Governor Davis have been packed in ice and placed in a cool room, awaiting the arrival of his wife and children from the East.

George Holesworth has been appointed agent for the Canton Steel Roofing Company—fireproof roofing. He is now putting on a roof for H. H. Beck, whom he refers to as reference.

Professor C. W. Friend informs the Carson Tribune that C. H. Sinclair left for Austin last Thursday night, and with R. A. Marr will return on Saturday to finish longitudinal observations between Austin and Carson.

A twenty dollar piece was found in the bottom of a sack of sweet potatoes that came from Sacramento to Sierra Valley. This should not excite lovers of that vegetable, as only the large potatoes will continue to lodge at the bottom of the sack.

The Minneapolis Building and Loan Association has withdrawn from business in California. One reason is the attacks of Commissioner Tobin and the other is the Mortgage Tax law, which is not suited to the kind of business the institution transacts.

PERSONAL.

A. S. Beaune of Boca is in Reno to-day. Alvaro Evans went below last evening.

J. D. Kersey of Carson was in Reno last night. W. J. Hanks of Wells was in town last evening.

Two members of the United States Geological Survey arrived from the East last evening.

George H. Taylor and family, after enjoying the sea breeze at the Bay, returned to Reno yesterday.

Conductor Benson left this morning for Ogden to meet Mrs. H. C. Davis and family who will accompany to Carson.

Daniel R. Davis, brother of the late Lieutenant-Governor of Nevada, arrived last evening from Ogden on his way to Carson.

Pierce Evans left last evening for Mohawk Valley to join his wife, who is recreating in that cool and delightful summer resort.

Mrs. C. C. Goodwin, wife of the editor of the Salt Lake Tribune and step-daughter of Joseph Tisdan of Lake Tahoe, is visiting Carson friends.

Suit for Damages.

A suit for $5,000 damages, alleged to have been derived from ore extracted from within the boundaries of the Lady Bryan location, has been entered against Jack Sheppard and Johnathan Lees in the District Court in addition to the suit enjoining the defendants from further trespass on ground claimed by the Lady Bryan company.

Another for El Rio Key.

A private dispatch received to-day says that Theodore Winters' El Rio Key won the Eclipse stakes. There were fifteen crack horses in the race, and the stakes were worth about $18,000. Time, 1:14.

J. SUNDERLAND.

A SENSITIVE CAT.

Which Showed Strong Signs of Jealousy.

A Renfrew, Canada, paper says: In a family in town there is a cat that is much petted. One day the lady of the house sat down for a moment, and either to relieve her feelings, or a bit of innocent diversion, gave vent to a little whistle. Immediately the cat sprang into her lap, and with its sheathed paw struck her a blow in the face. The lady thought this strange, but at first did not connect it with the whistle. However, a little time afterward, in another room, she happened to repeat the whistle, and immediately the cat sprang up and struck her again. This time she thought it was the whistling which gave puppy offense, and so, with "malice aforethought," whistled again. Sure enough, the cat chastised her with another blow, square in the face. About the only possible explanation is that in the whistle it fancied a call was being given to the pet dog and was jealous thereof.

CHURCH NOTICES.

BAPTIST CHURCH—Baptist services at the Court House, south side of the river, to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. C. L. Fisher, Pastor. Subject: "The Power of Influence." Evening subject: "Stealing, or Thieves in Society."

METHODIST CHURCH—Service in the M. E. Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject: "The Power of Influence." Evening subject: "Stealing, or Thieves in Society."

Meeting of Executive Committee. The Executive Committee of the Board of Agriculture met again to-day at the Court-house.

As it was only a meeting of the Executive Committee there was nothing of importance to chronicle aside from routine business. Another race was added to the programme—one-half mile and repeat for a purse of $250. Superintendent Gould was authorized to sell the crop of oats and bedding cut on the track to the best advantage, the crop of oats being about 1,100 bushels.

There will be a meeting of the full Board on September 7th, when interesting matters will be brought up.

Annual Election. At the annual meeting of the Sun Creek Land and Cattle Company shareholders, held at the office in Virginia City yesterday, the following Board of Trustees and officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term:

Trustees—W. J. Hanks, F. E. Fielding, Robert Searls, John Beresford and J. B. Dazet.

Officers—President and Manager, W. J. Hanks; Vice-President, R. Searls; Secretary, F. E. Fielding; Treasurer, J. B. Dazet.

State Land Office. During the week ending August 23d twenty-five applications for State land were filed, embracing 9,352 67 acres.

CASH RECEIPTS. Payments at time of application.....$2,375 16 Interest payments.....138 51 Total.....$2,513 67

Badly Burned. The Tascara Times give an account of the serious burning of a young man by the name of Welch who was attempting to start a fire under the retorts of the Union mill with coal oil.

Self-Defense Against a Dangerous Foe.

Forewarned is not forearmed in the case of those who incur the risk of an attack from that dangerous foe, malaria, unprovided with a means of defense. But those in peril are aided and sustained by the great fortifying safeguard, "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," miasma, prolific breeder of evil, manifested in the shape of bilious remittent and chills and fever, ague, dumber ague and the calentura of the isthmus and Central American coast, is nullified and rendered harmless. Our western pioneer settlers and miners, dwellers in tropic lowlands and visitants of swamps and malarious localities in this country and many quarters of the globe, have for years been acquainted with the fact and are constantly provided with this unparalleled defensive medicine and remedy. All disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, rheumatic and kidney complaints and rheumatism are conquered by it.

Another Sale.

Pierce Evans' interest in the Reno Water Company and Highland Ditch was yesterday purchased by Messrs. Foley and Powning.

The Bulletin is the leading evening journal in circulation and influence on the Pacific coast. It is distinguished for the brilliancy of its editorial matter, accuracy and completeness of its local news, reviews of current literature and art, and extent of foreign news, while it is the recognized authority in all financial and trade circles. The Daily Bulletin is the only newspaper in California that publishes in extenso the decisions of the Supreme Court.

Owing to the difference in time between San Francisco and the principal news centers in the East, the world's news of each day is furnished by the Bulletin 12 hours in advance of the morning papers. The Weekly Bulletin is a handsome 12 page, 16 column paper, issued every Wednesday morning—the largest and best weekly published in the West. It furnishes the latest and most reliable financial news and market quotations, and gives special attention to agricultural and horticultural news, and is in every respect a first-class family paper, appealing to the interest of every member of the household. The Semi-Weekly Bulletin is the regular Weekly Bulletin and Friday's issue of each week.

WONDERFUL WOOING.

John Mauley's Striking Innovation in Courtship.

His Enchantress Never Even Looked at Him, Yet He Talked to Her Every Morning—The Justice to the Rescue.

The late Peter Footo, who for years presided as justice at the Armory police court, officiated at one of the queerest wedding ceremonies in the annals of civil-law marriages.

One of the posts which support the ceiling of the court-room rises at the front edge of the desk behind which the justice was seated. On one side of the post the police officers are accustomed to place the accused person, and on the other side the plaintiff and witnesses stand. The post makes a dividing line between the two parties to the suit, and if either of them wishes he may prevent the other from seeing his face by standing close to the post and leaning over the "bar."

Drunks and disorderlies had occupied the attention of the court for an hour or more when the case of John Mauley was called, on the charge of "disturbing the peace." A policeman brought the man from the lock-up and stationed him before the bar, where he swore to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. He was a fine-looking man, with courageous blue eyes, and had the appearance of being well-to-do.

The clerk called the name of the complainant, Mary Wellspring. A woman who had been seated in the court-room with her face heavily veiled started as her name was called and was reluctantly led before the court.

In approaching the bar she turned her head away as if she was reluctant to see the prisoner. It was not until she had gained the shelter of the post that she removed the veil from her face and looked at the justice.

She was fair, almost beautiful, with a good figure and an air of gentle breeding. Upon being sworn she stated in a low voice that the defendant had habitually annoyed her upon the train from the suburb in which she lived. She was obliged to ride on the same train daily, as it was the only one which would get her to the city in time to be promptly at her place of employment.

The defendant got on at a station nearer the city than her own and always sat down behind her and engaged her in conversation. This had resulted in her being ridiculed by her friends. They were always reminding her of her unknown admirer and on most inopportune occasions. She had become weary of this; she had never given him the right to be so familiar, and she could not tell him to his face that he was annoying her.

He ought to have known that from her actions, and she believed that he would not desert even if she spoke to him, for she had discovered that he was very persistent. Finally he had proposed marriage to her. This had decided her to have him arrested.

The justice—I think this court has no jurisdiction in the case. The offense was committed outside the city limits.

The Plaintiff—Partly, your honor. All along the line between his station and the city depot.

The Justice—I will take that point under advisement.

The Defendant—It is not a crime to propose marriage to a woman.

The Justice—On the contrary. What do you say to that?

The Plaintiff—The charge is disturbing the peace, which in this case means annoying a defenseless woman.

The Justice—Are you guilty or not, sir? Have a care how you answer. The charge is grave and you are under oath.

The Defendant—Not guilty, your honor.

The Justice—You have almost admitted having proposed to this woman. Do you deny all the facts antecedent to the proposal of which she complains?

The Defendant—I plead not guilty on the charge of annoying her.

The Justice—Why?

The Defendant—Every womanly woman likes to be made love to.

The Plaintiff (with a sob)—I am not unwomanly, your honor.

The Defendant (triumphantly)—I told you so!

The Justice (in a loud voice)—Silence in the court!

The Plaintiff—He is a brute!

The Justice—You charge the defendant, John Mauley, with annoying you?

The Plaintiff—Yes, your honor.

The Justice—And the prisoner is John Mauley? You identify him as the man who annoyed you?

The Plaintiff—If he is John Mauley he is the man who annoyed me.

The Justice (impatiently)—But is the prisoner John Mauley?

The Plaintiff—I have never seen Mr. Mauley.

The Justice—Never seen the man whom you accuse of annoying you?

The Plaintiff—I can describe him. He is very large.

The Justice—How do you know?

The Plaintiff—Because he always sits down in the center of the car seat, and is always puffing when he does. He carries a cane.

The Justice—What makes you think so?

The Plaintiff—Because I hear him put it in the corner of the seat. He is near his second childhood.

The Justice—Why?

The Plaintiff—Because he is always eating peanuts. He is a Republican. Want to know why?

The Justice—Yes.

The Plaintiff—Because he buys the Tribune and the Times and gives me two Times to read while he reads the Tribune.

The Justice—You read his newspaper every morning and yet you say you never gave him any encouragement. Remember your oath.

The Plaintiff—He leans over the back of my seat and says "Good morning!" I look out of the window without replying. Then he lays the paper on my lap and says: "There's something very interesting in the paper this morning." Of course I look to see what it is. Then I fold up the paper and hand it back over my shoulder and say: "Thank you."

The Justice—Never any thing else?

The Plaintiff—Never; except when I repeat it. He is deaf. He always says "What?" Then I repeat: "Thank you!"

The Justice—You hear what the plaintiff says, prisoner?

The Defendant (who is a young, medium-sized man, carrying an umbrella)—I now plead guilty, your honor. I am John Mauley, the man who annoyed her.

The Justice—Have you any excuse?

The Defendant—It will only make matters worse, I am afraid. If I state it.

The Justice—You want to state it?

The Defendant—It was because I loved her.

The Plaintiff—People do not annoy those whom they love.

The Defendant—I wanted to marry her.

The Plaintiff—He asked me if he could buy papers for me always!

The Justice—And you refused?

The Plaintiff (indignantly)—I did not refuse, of course.

The Justice—Did you read his paper the next morning?

The Plaintiff—Yes, sir.

The Justice—And the next?

The Plaintiff—Yes, sir.

The Justice—And what did the prisoner say?

The Plaintiff—Nothing, your honor, except: "There's something interesting in the paper this morning," when he handed it to me, and "What?" when I said: "Thank you."

The Justice—And then?

The Plaintiff—I had been arrested.

The Justice—The court decides that it has jurisdiction in this case.

The Defendant—Before your honor passes judgment I wish to say that I am not deaf. I only wanted to make her talk to me.

The Justice—Be careful, prisoner; you are magnifying your offense.

The Defendant—I sat in the middle of the seat so I could see over her shoulder. I gave her the Times because I wanted her to have the best paper. I always carry an umbrella because you can never tell what the weather is going to be. I puff when I have to run to catch the train.

The Justice—But the peanuts!

The Defendant—I eat them to hide my discomfiture when she rebuffs me.

The Justice—You have not told me how you knew the name of the man who annoyed you.

The Plaintiff—The conductor always said: "Good morning, John Mauley, you old duffer. How are you?"

The Justice—Prisoner, you ought to be ashamed of yourself. Have you got any home?

The Defendant—Yes, your honor. Brick, ten rooms, gas and hot water throughout.

The Justice—What is your business? Idle, I suppose!

The Defendant—Gents' furnishing goods, your honor. Twenty-five hundred dollars clear per annum.

The Justice—Married or single?

The Defendant—Your honor, I protest. My attentions to this young lady were strictly honorable. I have never been married before and never shall be again.

The Justice—Eh! What's that?

The Defendant—I mean, if she marries me.

The Justice—And you survive her?

The Defendant—Yes, your honor.

The Justice—Prisoner, I am sorry for you. You don't look like a man who would fully annoy anybody. But you pleaded guilty, didn't you?

The Defendant—Yes, your honor.

The Justice—For shame! It is not often I have ever a handsome man to sentence. That mustache of yours and your blue eyes and your good clothes will cost you dear. I detest a masquerade, and when a man who has a respectable appearance is brought before me charged with annoying women in public places I always give them the limit. I wish I could sentence you for a longer time! Mr. Clerk, make it read "Three months in the bridewell," unless—

The Plaintiff's curiosity gets the better of her, and she glances past the post at the prisoner.

The Justice—Unless this woman will marry you.

The Plaintiff—He has never asked me, your honor.

The Defendant—I will now. Can you not love and marry me, Mary?

The Plaintiff—I can not promise to love you, because I do already. But I will marry you.

The Justice—When?

The Defendant—Now!

The Plaintiff—Oh, how sudden!

The Justice—Go, get a license, prisoner.

The Defendant—I have one—producing it from his pocket—I always go prepared for any emergency.

The Justice—By authority of the law I pronounce you man and wife. Mr. Clerk, make it read "many years in the domestic jail."—Chicago Times.

Cholera in Michigan.
Dr. F. D. Larke, of Rogers City, Michigan, says the epidemic of last year in Presque Isle county, in which so many persons lost their lives, was cholera-dysentery instead of cholera as first reported. He used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says it succeeded, where all other remedies failed. Not a single case was lost in which it was used. This remedy is the most reliable and most successful medicine known for colic, cholera, morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea and bloody flux. Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Oregon is one of the most productive States in the Union. Its vast mineral regions contain gold, silver, copper, iron and coal. In immense tracts of grazing lands support thousands of cattle and sheep, and its extensive agricultural regions produce all the cereals in abundance, the yield per acre being, in some instances, the largest in the world. Among the useful and valuable products of the Webfoot State may be mentioned Oregon Kidney Tea, which has proved a boon to thousands afflicted with pain in the back and kidney difficulties. It is purely of vegetable composition and never fails. Sold by William Pinniger.

The immediate symptoms of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, are a distressing sense of weight, oppression and fullness in the stomach, heartburn, loss of appetite, foul breath, belching, flatulency, nausea, pains in the shoulders and breast. Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic promotes healthy digestion and removes all unhealthy symptoms. Sold by William Pinniger.

It should be generally known that Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic insures a hearty appetite and increased digestion, dispels nervous depression and low spirits, overcomes lack of energy and weakness, and will infuse new life and strength into the weakest invalid. Sold by William Pinniger.

Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. 1/3
